

CHAPEL OF THE CROSS July 4, 2008

Join fellow Americans for a free patriotic program at 4PM this Fourth of July at the Chapel of the Cross, 4333 Cole Avenue, two blocks south of Knox in Uptown Dallas. This fifth annual Musical Fourth concert gives you the chance to sing along to flag-waving favorites like America; This Land Is Your Land; and You're a Grand Old Flag. The choir will sing stirring works, such as an Armed Forces Medley and Sousa's lyrics to Stars and Stripes Forever. Back again is United We Stand, a choral anthem written by Dallas composer Noel Goemanne and premiered during last year's concert. The singing of Texas, Our Texas adds local color. All are invited to a free barbecue and pie tasting following the concert – rain or shine. So, bring the whole family and celebrate the Fourth of July this Friday at 4 at the Chapel of the Cross, 4333 Cole Avenue, two blocks south of Knox in Uptown Dallas. For more information, call 214 521 6062 or visit www.MusicalFourth.com.